

Route 66 Film Festival

PO Box 5010, Springfield IL 62701

Route66FilmFestival@gmail.com

After its proud debut in 2002, the Route 66 Film Festival proudly enters its second decade, bringing exciting independent films from around the world to Springfield, Illinois, and providing a venue for new filmmakers to show their work, share ideas with other filmmakers, and entertain audiences with films they might never otherwise see.

Films shown at this festival have earned notable recognition, including nominations for Academy Awards.

The Route 66 Film Festival is honored to be a member of a worldwide community of creative filmmakers and enthusiastic film viewers.

Into the Silent Sea
(Andrej Landin, Sweden),
Best of Festival, 2014

"...exciting independent films from around the world."

Festival costs are rising. You can help.

Financial and in-kind support ensures the continued success of the annual Route 66 Film Festival.

Contributions from individuals, local business owners and corporations help the festival to grow and expand.

Please complete the form on the back of this flyer and include it with your donation.

Thank you!

Save The Date: November 6-7, 2015
14th Route 66 Film Festival

www.route66filmfestival.net